The Hope of Christmas 2013

the annual Christmas ministry of Good Shepherd Ministries

This is a great year for the Hope of Christmas.
The church response in supplying Christmas Bags has been wonderful. And now the container, with all of the gifts, has arrived at the port in Cap Haitien. Be in prayer for Bill as he begins the process of clearing it through customs and getting it to our Milot
compound.

▲ A group of the ladies from White Pond
Baptist Church, White City Alabama, load bags into banana boxes in preparation for loading onto the container.

Shepherd's Care Wall

Funding for the wall is complete - and it is 95% completed - we are preparing to launch into Phase III of The Shepherd's Care Project. THANK YOU!

Fall Medical Clinic

The Lord's servants came together from Tennessee, North Carolina, Florida, and Alabama to staff a great week of ministry to our school children and workers ...

▲ These Biclair children seem happy enough to see the doctor as they show off their medical cards. Perhaps they were just glad to have a break from class!

James Cotton, from Indiana Ave Baptist Church in LaFollette, TN manages the pharmacy at Savane Carree. ►

▲ Josh Claiborne, RN from Indiana Ave Baptist Church in LaFollette, TN finds a new friend!

◀ Dr. Argentina Brito is originally from the Dominican Republic, and now lives in Florida. She made lots of friends while in Haiti. Much thanks to Dr. B for serving the Lord and the people of Haiti.

Character Education

"In the Gap Ministries" - out of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma is helping us equip our schools to teach biblical character education as a regular part of our student curriculum.

We are excited about this curriculum!

Pastor's Schools

GSM conducts quarterly Pastor's Schools to equip and ground local Haitian pastors in sound Biblical doctrine. Thank you to GSM board member John Copeland for leading this ministry, and to the U.S. pastors who go to Haiti at their own expense to teach and equip our Haitian brethren.
